Christ Temptation

by Fr. Frederick Edlefsen

Christ was "led by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness" (Luke 4:1). In the wilderness of this fallen world, we join Jesus in confronting "the world, the flesh and the devil" (James 3:15). The world means vanity, greed, craving praise and honors, and a penchant for turning money into power. The flesh means gluttony, lust, and sloth. Unlike us, Christ's temptations concerning the world and flesh did not come from within himself, as his humanity was innocent and untainted by Original Sin. These temptations had to come from without – the devil.

The devil and his minions are depraved yet personal spirits (fallen angels) that come from outside of ourselves. For us, who suffer the effects of Original Sin, it's hard to tell if a temptation is coming from without (devils) or from within our wounded nature (flesh or world). But that is neither here nor there. Do not fall into the trap of trying to figure it out. Most temptations probably come from within. In any event, this is what matters: temptations can teach us trust in God's grace if we're willing to patiently and prayerfully suffer through them while preserving our baptismal innocence.

Our temptations invite us to participate in Christ's temptation and let the Holy Spirit lead the way. The Holy Spirit guides us through perilous adventures that may frighten but always purify us. Above all, temptation can kill Pride. Temptations can be turned into friends that teach us to rely less on virtue and more on grace. They can teach us to pray. They can teach the art of patience. To be sure, holiness is not freedom from temptation.

The Holy Spirit's Gift of Fear of the Lord flows from Love and gently helps us navigate our tendencies to sin. The Spirit inspires an inner fear of betraying God and neighbor. It eventually cultivates a supernatural repugnance for sin. Pray for this Gift. The sweetest blossom of persevering through temptation is a person's full recognition of and living out Christ's famous dictum: "Whatsoever you did to the least of my brothers, you do unto me" (Matthew 25:40).

This Lent, follow Christ through temptation into purity of heart. Join the Risen Christ – who has conquered the world – in saying, "Behold, I make all things new." (Revelation 21:5)

SUPPORT OUR LADY OF LOURDES

We have a growing parish. Last fiscal year, household registration increased 8.5% while Sunday offertory collections increased 1%. In order to align Sunday giving with budgeted expenses, we'll need $60K more collection income by the end of June 2025. If everyone pitches in—by increasing regular First Collection giving or by starting to give regularly for the first time— We can do it!

Fathers Edlefsen and Peffley thank everyone who have increased offertory giving or started giving for the first time. If you wish to support Our Lady of Lourdes through online giving, use the above QR code, the QR code in the pew in front of you, or press the "GIVE" button on our website.

The Light is On For You

Celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation

TheLightIsOn.org

#TheLightIsON

How can I prepare to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation?

Examine your conscience. Think about both the times that you have intentionally done something wrong and the times that you chose not to do something for the good of another person. The Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1-17) and the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3-12) are helpful tools for examining your conscience.

What if I don't remember how to go to confession?

Going to Reconciliation may be face-to-face or anonymous, with a screen between you and the priest. Choose the option that is most comfortable for you. Here are the steps:

1. The priest gives a blessing or greeting.
2. Make the Sign of the Cross and say, "Bless me father, for I have sinned. My last confession was..." (give weeks, months, or years).
3. Confess all your sins to the priest. (If you are unsure or uneasy, tell him and ask for help.)
4. Say, "I am sorry for these and all my sins."
5. The priest gives a penance and offers advice to help you become a better Catholic Christian.
6. Say an Act of Contrition, expressing your sorrow for your sins.
7. The priest, acting in the person of Christ, then absolves you from your sins.

"Go in peace"

Act of Contrition

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.

Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us.

In his name, my God, have mercy.

*God never tires of forgiving us;
we are the ones who tire of seeking His Mercy*

VOCATIONS, STEWARDSHIP & MORE

Stewardship Reflection

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O lord, have given to me." Deuteronomy 26:10

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your "first fruits" - the first and best that you have to offer? Or do you give from what you have leftover? Second, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? We aren't owners of anything, we are merely stewards of God's gifts. Pray for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

NOVENA PRAYER TO SAINT JOSEPH

(This Novena will be prayed during Masses from March 11—March 19)

O blessed Joseph, guardian of the Redeemer, Protector of the Virgin Mary, I ask you this day to be my guide through earthly life.

I humbly beg you To bring the peace of the Holy Family to the entire human family. Bless us with your wisdom and courage.

Receive all children as your own. Obtain for everyone the knowledge and love of the Heart of Jesus Console the poor and marginalized. Guide and protect everyone through life's journey to the Face of God, now and every day, and at the hour of our death.

Amen.
St. Joseph,
Pray for us.

"You shall worship the Lord, your God, and Him alone shall you serve" (Luke 4:8)

This Lenten season, reflect on your life's direction. Are you being called to serve God with an undivided heart as a priest or religious brother or sister? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (703) 841-2514 or via email at vocations@arlingtondiocese.org.

La tentación de Cristo

por el P. Frederick Edlefsen

Cristo fue "llevado por el Espíritu Santo al desierto" (Lucas 4:1). En el desierto de este mundo caído, nos unimos a Jesús para enfrentar "el mundo, la carne y el diablo" (Santiago 3:15). Lo que es del mundo significa vanidad, codicia, deseo de alabanzas y honores, y una inclinación por convertir el dinero en poder. La carne significa gula, lujuria y pereza. A diferencia de nosotros, las tentaciones del mundo y de la carne que Cristo enfrentó no vinieron del interior de Él mismo, ya que su humanidad era inocente y no estaba contaminada por el pecado original. Estas tentaciones tenían que venir de fuera: del diablo.

El diablo y sus secuaces son espíritus depravados pero personales (ángeles caídos) que vienen de fuera de nosotros. Para nosotros, que sufrimos los efectos del pecado original, es difícil saber si una tentación viene de fuera (demonios) o de adentro de nuestra naturaleza herida (carne o mundo). Pero al final no importa. No caigas en la trampa de tratar de saber. Es probable que la mayoría de las tentaciones provengan de nuestro interior. En cualquier caso, lo que importa es esto: las tentaciones pueden enseñarnos a confiar en la gracia de Dios si estamos dispuestos a sufrirlas con paciencia y en oración, preservando nuestra inocencia bautismal.

Nuestras tentaciones nos invitan a compartir en la tentación de Cristo y a dejar que el Espíritu Santo nos guíe en el camino. El Espíritu Santo nos guía a través de experiencias desagradables que pueden asustarnos, pero siempre nos purifican. La tentación también puede matar el Orgullo. Las tentaciones pueden convertirse en experiencias que nos enseñan a confiar menos en la virtud y más en la gracia. Nos pueden enseñar a orar y a aprender el arte de la paciencia. Ciertamente, la santidad no es estar libre de tentación.

El Temor al Señor, uno de los Dones del Espíritu Santo, fluye del amor y suavemente nos ayuda a controlar nuestras tendencias al pecado. El Espíritu inspira un miedo interior a traicionar a Dios y al prójimo. Con el tiempo, cultiva una repugnancia sobrenatural hacia el pecado. Oren por este Don. La flor más dulce al preservar a través de la tentación es el pleno reconocimiento y el vivir de la persona según las palabras de Cristo: "Todo lo que hicieron con el más pequeño de mis hermanos, lo hicieron conmigo" (Mateo 25:40).

En esta Cuaresma, sigue a Cristo a través de la tentación en el camino hacia la pureza de corazón; únete a Cristo resucitado, que ha conquistado el mundo, para decir: "He aquí que yo hago nuevas todas las cosas" (Apocalipsis 21:5).

Reflexión de la Semana

“Por eso traigo ahora los primeros frutos de la tierra que el Señor me ha dado.”

Deuteronomio 26:10

Esta línea del Antiguo Testamento nos ofrece dos desafíos. El primero, ¿le da a Dios sus “primeros frutos” - los primeros y mejores que usted tiene que ofrecerle? ¿O le da lo que le sobra? El segundo, ¿se da cuenta que todo lo que tiene y todo lo que ha recibido viene de Dios? No somos dueños de nada, somos simples administradores de los dones de Dios. Ore por un corazón agradecido y generoso, cada día, en cualquier circunstancia.

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES
