Let Them be Born in Wonder

Fr. Frederick Edlefsen

"[The] fundamental elements of knowledge spring from the wonder awakened in [humans] by the contemplation of creation: human beings are astonished to discover themselves as part of the world, in a relationship with others like them, all sharing a common destiny. Here begins, then, the journey which will lead them to discover ever new frontiers of knowledge. Without wonder, men and women would lapse into deadening routine and little by little would become incapable of a life which is genuinely personal." (Pope John Paul II, Faith and Reason, 4).

The Canadian Tourism Commission once featured an ad showing a father and son on a rock overlooking Lake Huron. The father's finger pointed outward, guiding the boy's attention to the lake's azure horizon. That's a good image of education. Learning begins with wonder and a trustworthy guide. Wonder opens the mind to life's most important questions. In wonder, youths cultivate proper affections for everything good in creation and civilization, forming gentle and perceptive sensibilities. Healthy sensibilities lead to healthy thinking.

A schoolmaster once said, "Poetry begins in delight and ends in wonder. Philosophy begins in wonder and ends in wisdom." Wonder invites empathy, gratitude, and affection. These are not just subjective feelings. They are proper responses to the world outside of and in relation to us, inviting us to participate in Creation and thereby God's own Thought.

"Nascantur in admirationem!" "Let them be born in wonder!"

The heart must be formed before the head. For youth, leisurely experiences of discovery, when time is not kept – playing in the dirt, contemplating the woods, taking apart an old clock, exploring a tool shed, wandering a garden, perusing a random book – are timeless lessons. Wisdom is knowledge formed by love.

Sunday is our most important school day. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, coupled with leisure, precedes the classroom. Grace and nature invite the young and mature to contemplate vital questions: What's a good life? What's happiness? Justice? Suffering and pain? Why do innocent people suffer? What's good death? Life after death?

"Just as God 'rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had done' (Genesis 2:2), human life has a rhythm of work and rest. The institution of the Lord's Day helps everyone enjoy adequate rest and leisure to cultivate their familial, cultural, social, and religious lives." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2184).

Commitment Month

September is Commitment Month at Our Lady of Lourdes. We invite all parish families to reflect on the many blessings our faith community provides and to prayerfully consider increasing your weekly or monthly Offertory—or First Collection—giving. Your support is essential to keeping our parish on sound financial footing, allowing us to maintain our beautiful facilities, support our dedicated staff, and continue offering vital liturgical and pastoral programs. Sustaining a vibrant parish requires the collective generosity of every parishioner. Directing your gifts to the First Collection directly funds our day-to-day operations, from heating and lighting the church to hosting ministry gatherings and providing religious education for our youth. Thank you for your continued generosity and devotion to Our Lady of Lourdes.

Archangel Raphael

Saint Raphael the Archangel is the divine messenger of healing, safe travel, and joyful encounters, taking his name from the Hebrew meaning "God heals." His story is celebrated primarily in the Old Testament's Book of Tobit, where he disguises himself as a human companion named Azarias to guide young Tobiah on a dangerous journey, banish a demonic affliction, and restore the sight of Tobiah's blind father using the miraculous properties of a fish. Let us turn to St. Raphael this month, asking for his intercessory prayers to bring God's light and healing grace into our homes and communities.

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF ARLINGTON
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

EDICT

THOMAS STEPHEN VANDER WOUDE was born on April 24, 1942, in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, into a devout Catholic family. After graduating from Creighton University, he married Mary Ellen Earley on December 26, 1964. Their marriage was blessed with seven sons, one of whom became a priest of the Diocese of Arlington. He served as a United States Naval Aviator during the Vietnam War and subsequently worked as a commercial airline pilot. Throughout his life, he was deeply devoted to the Holy Eucharist, the Blessed Virgin Mary, prayer, family life, Catholic education, and service to the Church and those in need.

On September 8, 2008, the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Thomas died in Nokesville, Virginia, while saving the life of his youngest son, who had fallen into a septic tank on the family property. His final act of self-sacrificial love was widely regarded as the culmination of a Christian life marked by faith, charity, humility, fortitude, and generous service to others.

As his reputation for holiness, for the offering of his life, and for signs has grown and spread over the years, and having received the formal petition of the Postulator, Dr. Waldery Hilgeman, for the initiation of his Cause of Beatification and Canonization, we hereby bring this matter to the attention of the ecclesial community.

We therefore invite all the faithful to communicate directly or to submit to the Reverend Monsignor Paul deLadurantaye, Chancellor of the Diocese of Arlington, all information from which elements favorable or contrary to the reputation for holiness, the offering of life, or the reputation for signs of Thomas Stephen Vander Woude may be inferred.

Furthermore, in accordance with the applicable canonical provisions, all writings attributed to Thomas Stephen Vander Woude, including diaries, letters, correspondence, manuscripts, notes, and any other private writings, as well as documents in any way relevant to the Cause, must be collected.

Therefore, by means of this Edict, we direct anyone possessing such writings or documents who has not already delivered them to the Postulator to submit them with due diligence to the Reverend Monsignor Paul deLadurantaye, Chancellor, at the offices of the Diocese of Arlington.

We further decree that this Edict shall remain posted for a period of three months at the offices of the Diocesan Curia, at the Cathedral of Saint Thomas More and at the parish church of Holy Trinity in Gainesville, and shall be published on the official website of the Diocese of Arlington and in the Arlington Catholic Herald.

Given at Arlington, Virginia, on the eighth day of September, in the Year of Our Lord 2026.

Bishop of Arlington

¡ Que nazcan en la admiración!

Por el padre Frederick Edlefsen

"[Los] conocimientos fundamentales derivan del asombro suscitado en [los humanos] por la contemplación de la creación: el ser humano se sorprende al descubrirse inmerso en el mundo, en relación con sus semejantes con los cuales comparte un destino común. De aquí arranca el camino que lo llevará al descubrimiento de horizontes de conocimientos siempre nuevos. Sin el asombro, los seres humanos caerían en la repetitividad y, poco a poco, serían incapaces de vivir una existencia verdaderamente personal." (Papa Juan Pablo II, Fe y razón, 4)

La Comisión de Turismo de Canadá publicó una vez un anuncio que mostraba a un padre y un hijo en una roca con vistas al lago Hurón. El padre apuntando con su dedo, guiaba la atención del niño hacia el horizonte azul del lago. Esa es una buena imagen de lo que es la educación. El aprendizaje comienza con asombro y con un buen maestro. El asombro abre la mente a las preguntas más importantes de la vida. En el asombro, los jóvenes cultivan un afecto adecuado por todo lo bueno en la creación y la civilización, formando una sensibilidad delicada y perceptiva. Las sensibilidades saludables conducen a un pensamiento sano.

Un maestro dijo una vez: "La poesía comienza en el deleite y termina en asombro. La filosofía comienza en asombro y termina en sabiduría." El asombro invita a la empatía, la gratitud y el afecto. No son solo sentimientos subjetivos. Son respuestas adecuadas al mundo exterior y en relación con nosotros, invitándonos a participar en la Creación y, por lo tanto, en el propio Pensamiento de Dios. "¡Nascantur en admiración!" "¡Que nazcan en la admiración!"

El corazón debe formarse antes que la cabeza. Para la juventud, las experiencias gratuitas y serenas de descubrimiento, —como jugar en la tierra, contemplar el bosque, desarmar una máquina vieja, explorar una caja de herramientas, pasear por un jardín, hojear un libro al azar— son lecciones de por vida. La sabiduría es conocimiento formado por el amor. El domingo es nuestro día de aprendizaje más importante. El Santo Sacrificio de la Misa, junto con un día de descanso, anticipan este aprendizaje. La gracia y la naturaleza invitan a los jóvenes y adultos a reflexionar sobre cuestiones vitales: ¿Qué es una buena vida? ¿Qué es la felicidad? ¿La justicia? ¿El sufrimiento y el dolor? ¿Por qué sufren las personas inocentes? ¿Qué es morir en paz? ¿Que es la vida después de la muerte?

"Así como Dios 'descansó en el séptimo día de toda su obra que había hecho' (Génesis 2:2), la vida humana tiene un ritmo de trabajo y descanso. La institución del Día del Señor ayuda a todos a disfrutar de un tiempo de descanso y recreo necesarios para cultivar una vida familiar, cultural, social y religiosa." (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 2184)
