Midterm Musings

Fr. Frederick Edlefsen

I get weird politics. I grew up in Louisiana. During the 1991 governor's race, a popular bumper-sticker read: "Vote for the Crook. It's Important." Former Governor Edwin Edwards, the "Crook," and former Grand Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, David Duke, faced off in the general election. Amusing Crook stories abound, but they're not bulletin appropriate. But I'll share a few.

In the 1970s, a Houston Chronicle journalist challenged Edwards about his shady dealings. Edwards replied, "I don't know what you guys from Texas are worried about because I only steal from Louisiana." At the 1984 Democratic Convention, Edwards persuaded Louisiana's only Gary Hart delegate to switch his vote to Walter Mondale. A Hart supporter from Wyoming accused Edwards of "immorally" converting the delegate. NBC anchor, Connie Chung, asked Edwards if he had "done anything immoral." "Not since I got here," quipped Edwards.

Duke was not amused. Racial progress was at risk. Flash back: Governor Huey Pierce Long (1928-1932), "The Kingfish," was a post-Reconstruction progressive, abolishing poll taxes and helping Blacks and poor folks. Long ended the choice between shoes or textbooks for schoolkids. Long's heir (after two interims), Governor Richard Leche, was deemed the "second Louisiana purchase." Leche went to federal prison for skimming WPA funds and was succeeded by Long's certifiable younger brother: Earl. But segregationist Jimmy Davis – though supporting programs helping Blacks (unequally) and poor Whites – was elected in 1944 and again in 1960. The civil rights' tug-and-pull was favorable in the 1960s, in tandem with federal laws. But when Duke ran in 1991, it was concerning. Edwards said, "While David Duke was burning crosses... I was building hospitals..." The Crook won by a landslide. It was important.

Today's partisan divide must not trouble us. The checks-and-balances and peaceful transitions of our republic are about a trajectory of progress – not fast results. Our Founding Fathers, for all their faults (nothing in this world is born in innocence), understood the importance of a multilayered system of laws and check-and-balance that protect the right to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." We should be grateful to Providence for their practical wisdom.

"The cause of freedom is not the cause of race or a sect, a party or a class – it is the cause of humankind, the very birthright of humanity." (Anna Julia Cooper, 1858-1964, African American author, activist, educator, "A Voice from the South").

Commitment Month

September is Commitment Month at Our Lady of Lourdes. We invite all parish families to reflect on the many blessings our faith community provides and to prayerfully consider increasing your weekly or monthly Offertory—or First Collection—giving. Your support is essential to keeping our parish on sound financial footing, allowing us to maintain our beautiful facilities, support our dedicated staff, and continue offering vital liturgical and pastoral programs. Sustaining a vibrant parish requires the collective generosity of every parishioner. Directing your gifts to the First Collection directly funds our day-to-day operations, from heating and lighting the church to hosting ministry gatherings and providing religious education for our youth. Thank you for your continued generosity and devotion to Our Lady of Lourdes.

Archangel Michael

Saint Michael, whose Hebrew name means "Who is like God?" (Quis ut Deus), stands as the prince of the heavenly host and supreme guardian of God's holy Church. Renowned as the leader of the heavenly armies against evil, Saint Michael shields the faithful, intercedes at the hour of death, and defends truth across spiritual warfare (Revelation 12:7–9). He is venerated as the patron saint of police officers, first responders, military personnel, and spiritual defenders. Join us in celebrating the Feast of the Holy Archangels with Holy Mass and the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Tuesday, September 29.

October is the month of the

CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF ARLINGTON
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

EDICT

THOMAS STEPHEN VANDER WOUDE was born on April 24, 1942, in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, into a devout Catholic family. After graduating from Creighton University, he married Mary Ellen Earley on December 26, 1964. Their marriage was blessed with seven sons, one of whom became a priest of the Diocese of Arlington. He served as a United States Naval Aviator during the Vietnam War and subsequently worked as a commercial airline pilot. Throughout his life, he was deeply devoted to the Holy Eucharist, the Blessed Virgin Mary, prayer, family life, Catholic education, and service to the Church and those in need.

On September 8, 2008, the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Thomas died in Nokesville, Virginia, while saving the life of his youngest son, who had fallen into a septic tank on the family property. His final act of self-sacrificial love was widely regarded as the culmination of a Christian life marked by faith, charity, humility, fortitude, and generous service to others.

As his reputation for holiness, for the offering of his life, and for signs has grown and spread over the years, and having received the formal petition of the Postulator, Dr. Waldery Hilgeman, for the initiation of his Cause of Beatification and Canonization, we hereby bring this matter to the attention of the ecclesial community.

We therefore invite all the faithful to communicate directly or to submit to the Reverend Monsignor Paul deLadurantaye, Chancellor of the Diocese of Arlington, all information from which elements favorable or contrary to the reputation for holiness, the offering of life, or the reputation for signs of Thomas Stephen Vander Woude may be inferred.

Furthermore, in accordance with the applicable canonical provisions, all writings attributed to Thomas Stephen Vander Woude, including diaries, letters, correspondence, manuscripts, notes, and any other private writings, as well as documents in any way relevant to the Cause, must be collected.

Therefore, by means of this Edict, we direct anyone possessing such writings or documents who has not already delivered them to the Postulator to submit them with due diligence to the Reverend Monsignor Paul deLadurantaye, Chancellor, at the offices of the Diocese of Arlington.

We further decree that this Edict shall remain posted for a period of three months at the offices of the Diocesan Curia, at the Cathedral of Saint Thomas More and at the parish church of Holy Trinity in Gainesville, and shall be published on the official website of the Diocese of Arlington and in the Arlington Catholic Herald.

Given at Arlington, Virginia, on the eighth day of September, in the Year of Our Lord 2026.

✠ Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

Rev. Msgr. Paul deLadurantaye
Chancellor

Reflexiones durante tiempo de elecciones

Padre Frederick Edlefsen

Habiendo crecido en Luisiana, entiendo que la política es una cosa rara. En la contienda para la gobernación de 1991, un mensaje de campaña muy popular decía: "Vota por el Malandro. Es importante". El exgobernador Edwin Edwards, el "Malandro", y el ex Gran Maestro del Ku Klux Klan, David Duke, eran los candidatos en las elecciones generales. Historias divertidas sobre políticos corruptos abundan, pero no son apropiadas para un boletín. Pero les compartiré algunas. En los años 70, un periodista del Houston Chronicle le preguntó a Edwards sobre la reputación dudosa de sus negocios. Edwards le respondió: "No sé de qué se preocupan ustedes de Texas, porque yo solo robo en Luisiana." En la Convención Demócrata de 1984, Edwards convenció al único delegado de Gary Hart de Luisiana para que cambiara su voto a favor de Walter Mondale. Un partidario de Hart acusó a Edwards de "inmoral" por disuadir al delegado. La presentadora de televisión, Connie Chung, le preguntó a Edwards si él consideraba que había "hecho algo inmoral". Edwards le respondió en tono de broma: "No desde que llegué aquí".

El ascenso de Duke era preocupante. El progreso en la lucha por la justicia racial estaba en riesgo. En retrospectiva: el gobernador Huey Pierce Long (1928-1932), "El Kingfish", fue un gobernador progresista que abolió los impuestos para tener derecho a votar y ayudó a la población de color y a los pobres. El sucesor de Long (tras dos gobernadores interinos), fue el gobernador Richard Leche, quien terminó en una prisión federal por desviar fondos de la WPA. Leche fue sucedido por el hermano confiable de Long: Earl. Pero el segregacionista Jimmy Davis fue elegido en 1944 y de nuevo en 1960. El avance en los derechos civiles fue favorable en los años 60, junto con las leyes federales. Pero cuando Duke se presentó como candidato en 1991, fue preocupante. Edwards "El Malandro" declaró: "Mientras David Duke quemaba cruces... Yo construía hospitales..." "El Malandro" ganó las elecciones de una manera arrolladora. Eso fue importante. La división política actual no debe preocuparnos. Los controles y equilibrios y las transiciones pacíficas de nuestra república son parte de una trayectoria de progreso, no de resultados rápidos. Los Padres Fundadores de esta nación, a pesar de todos sus defectos (nada en este mundo nace en la inocencia), entendieron la importancia de un sistema de leyes y controles que protejan el derecho a la "vida, la libertad y la búsqueda de la felicidad". Deberíamos estar agradecidos a la Providencia por darles una sabiduría práctica.

"La causa de la libertad no es la causa de una raza, ni de una secta, ni de un partido, ni de una clase social: es la causa de la humanidad, el derecho de nacimiento de la humanidad." (Anna Julia Cooper, 1858-1964, autora, activista, educadora afroamericana, "Una voz del Sur").
